LIQUOR MATTERS TAKE ATTENTION OF SOLONS

New Kind of Club Measure Introduced in the House

HOTEL MEN IN FIGHT

Would Have Counties Stand Certain Losses--Local Option Bill Gets Vote

Harrisburg, Feb. 18—From being on the defensive, the liquor people have taken the aggressive at Harrisburg and some bills have been introduced which are not only startling in the radical provisions they advocate, but which are probably designed to engage the forces of the local optionists in a defensive fight. A new club measure has been introduced which will no doubt neutralize the proposed club licence bill which is arousing such a bitter controversy. Altogether, seven new liquor laws have been introduced, since the legislature met Monday evening.

One of the radical liquor measures is a bill requiring counties to reimburse liquor dealers for their losses in case their privileges are swept away by a local option or prohibition wave. This would be by the levy of a special tax on every subject of taxation and the loss would be determined by a board of appraisers. The county would also be responsible for losses by the refusal to renew licenses. Another of the radical bills is to authorize the courts to grant license to mining and manufacturing corporations the proceeds of which are to be used for the "material, mental and moral uplift" of the employes.

The club bill, which may possibly supplant the club licensing measure is modeled after theEnglish law on the subject, which was passed in 1902 and is said to have worked remarkably well. It does not require a license from the court, but all clubs are required to register with the clerk of the courts and to pay a fee of $3.

This registration includes the notification of the club's location, its name and object, its list of members and officers, its by-laws, its rules governing the admission of guests and non-members and the sale of liquor to them. Unregistered clubs are prohibited from selling liquor even to members, and the court is given authority to strike any club from registry for any of the following reasons: The passing of club out of existence, or the reduction of its members below 20; the use of the club or clubhouse for unlawful purposes or in bad faith as regards the liquor laws; when the club or its quarters become a nuisance to the neighborhood; when it appears that non-members are admitted for the sole purpose of obtaining intoxicating liquor; when members are admitted within 48 hours of their nomination to membership. Penalities are imposed upon the officers of the club for failure to register the club at the proper time and place and for selling liquor before registration of the club with the court.

Other measures introduced were one making it a misdemeanor for a

Steve Huggetts After Fight Presents Appearance Like Mexico City After War

Suffering with a broken nose and other injuries to his face the result of the worst kind of a beating Steve Huggets a Slavok is being cared for by a nurse at a home on McKean avenue. Huggets it is stated hada n altercation with John Pelky, and what Pelky did to him is what the Bulgars have been doing to Turkey. When Pelky got through with him his face looked like a picture of Mexico City during the worst of its strife. Both eyes were closed in addition to the fractured nose, he had a gash under one eye and his cheeks were puffed out until they somewhat resembled painted cabbages. A physician patched him up and the police went after Pelky, whim they secured after a short chase.

MEASLES EPIDEMIC AT WORST

Said to be at Least One Hundred Persons Ill From Disease

HEALTH OFFICER BUSY

There are probably 100 cases of measles now in Charleroi and the epidemic is the worst the town ever experienced. The health authoities are just beginning to have the disease controlled and more quarantine cards are being removed now than put up, which is considered an especially good sign. Health Officer Darby has been kept unusually busy quarantining new cases of measles, and fumigating homes where the disease has been.

The origin of the disease is not known. Measles usually rage through the winter season or during the spring, but never it is stated was there an epidemic similar to this in Charleroi. First traces of it were found among the children of the Second street and Crest avenue schools. In some places from four to five children in a home would be afflicted at once.

W. C. T. U. HONORS MEMORY OF FOUNDER

Memorial Services Held by Charleroi Society at First Christian Church--Review of Work of Temperance

Fitting tribute was paid to the memory of Francis Willard founder of the Women's Christian Temeprance Union, by the Charleroi W. C. T. U. Monday night at the First Christian church. By the meeting, which was attended by a good sized audience, an impetus was given to the work of the society in Charleroi. A most interesting program was carired out

Mrs. Emma Dawson, president of the society was in charge of the program. She conducted devotional services. Mrs. J. K. Mitchell was the first speaker, telling of the life, the ideals and the work of Frances Willard. Mrs. E. G. Stanley gave a descriptive analysis of the work of the W. C. T. U. at large.

The Loyal Temperance union, composed of young folks of a tender age under direction of Miss Lulu Buffle contributed a very interesting exercise as their share in the work for temperance.

The musical program wasexcellent. A male quartet composed of Rev. John R. Burson, John Bowman, W. C. Clark and Dr. J. W. Manon rendered some very entertaining selections. Mrs. I. T. Daniel, soprano soloist was in excellent voice and pleased accordingly. Most interesting temperance readings were given by Miss Nell Ryland and Miss Grace Chester. Rev. E. G. Stanley said the benediction.

EAST WASHINGTON HIGH COMBATANTS OF FRIDAY NIGHT

The fast East Washington High School basketball team, which last year proved to be one of the liveliest contenders for the Washington county's scholastic championship in basketball, and one of the hardest teams Charleroi High stacked up against, will be here on Friday night of this week to meet Charleroi High. To say a good game is expected is superfluous. The local boys are preparing to put their best lineup forth in their endeavor to claim the Washington county championship and are going to work hard for their laurels.

CHARLEROI BOWLERS BEAT FAYETTE CITY CHURCH LEAGUE MEN

St. Jerome s Catholic church bowling team of the Catholic Bowling league defeated the St. Eusebius church club of Fayette City Monday night in two out of three games. High score was made by J. A. Glasser of St. Jeromes with 140. After the game had seemingly been lost by St. Jerome's they came out ahead by a startling finish. St. Eusebius was well represented by rooters, who under the leadership of a Mr. Kelley, made things hum. The next game will be between St. Joseph's of Roscoe and the O'Connell club of Charleroi Friday. The score:

MAKES SECOND NOTICE

Added significance is being given to the move of a corporation of three men, who are unknown her, Herman W. Kalberer, Arthur B. Dampman, and William E. Miller, to secure charters for lightcompanies in Washington county. A little more than a week ago first notice was given of charters to be applied for in 12 districts, practically all of which fronted on the Monongahela. Today in other columns of the Mail are published 13 additional charter notices for charters to be applied for by the same body of men in townships and boroughs in various parts of Washington county. Wilson and Evans of Pittsburg are the attorneys.

The names of the thirteen companies of which first announcement of charters is made today and their point of operation are: Robinson township, Mt. Pleasant Light Co., Mt. Pleasant township; Smith Light Co., Smith township; Nottingham Light Co., Nottingham township; Somerset Light Co., Somerset township; Opalescent Light Co., West Bethlehem township; Amwell Light Co., Amwell township; Stockdale Light Co., Stockdale borough; Roscoe Light Co., Roscoe borough; Long Branch Light Co., Long Branch borough; Elco Light Co., Elco borough; Coal Centre Light Co., Coal Centre borough; California Light Co., California borough.

When these charters are asked for 25 of the townships and boroughs in the county will be represented. Whether the company plans to enter

Pittsburg-Charleroi Car Bumps Into Freight Car

SAMUEL DOWNER HURT

County Treasurer Sustains Cut on Cheek--Thirty Passengers Shaken up

About 30 passengers of Pittsburg-Charleroi car No. 3602 were more or less shaken up and some of them seriously injured when the car onward bound from Pittsburg crashed into the rear of a freight car at Mingo Switch Monday evening about 6 o'clock. Among the injured was County Treasurer Samuel Downer, who sustained a painful cut on his cheek that necessitated the attention of a physician. The accident is declared by the Pittsburg Railway company to be due to the falure of the brakes on the car to work.

The car was going at a fair speed when the crash came. When Motorman Caughey of the passenger car saw the collision was inevitable he jumped and rolled down an embankment into a creek. All of the passengers were hurled from their seats. The front of the passenger car was crushed in while the freight car was badly damaged, considerable mechandise being ruined.

Mr. Downer was thrown from his seat into another seat sustaining a cut on the lower part of the face which required several stitches, a bad sprain of the neck and bruises and hurts about the head. E. B. Enoch of Washington was cut about the head and face and a physician at Allenport closed one of his wounds with three stitches. Mrs. O'Neil of Linn alley, Monongahela, was injured about the face. Justice J. D. Hornbake of California had several teeth knocked out and his lips were cut. Other passengers were considerably shaken up but escaped serious hurts. Mrs. V. P. Stewart of Charleroi was on the car. She was thrown from her seat against the seat in front, sustaining bruises about her head and shoulders.

Another car was secured and the passengers taken on to Monongahela where they were asked to go to the Memorial hospital for treatment. Most of them declined and some of those hurt had their wounds dressed by physicians in Monongahela while others came on to Charleroi.

WHAT INTERVENTION MEANS

President Taft is to be commended for his determination not to be influenced by the jingoism that prevails in certain quarters and to abstain from intervention in Mexico unless absolutely necessary. Up to the present time there has been no necssity for intervention in Mexico by this government on account of the insurrection and disorder that now prevail in that country. While it is to be deplored that American interests in Mexico and investments there are not on a more stable basis, it must be remembered that such investments took the chance of instability of government when they made the venture.

It may be of interest to those people who are hot for intervention to know that if this course were adopted by this government it would require an army of 300,000 men and a expenditure of a million dollars a day. Military experts who have carefully looked over the situation and are preparing plans and specifications for the government are responsible for this statement. In addition to that, to preserve peace in Mexico means patrolling 700,000 square miles of territory, keeping 15,000,000 people in order, pursuing a guerilla warfare through inaccessible mountains for a period of from three to five years, ending up by taking over Mexico entirely, and adding to our trouble and perplexities of government.

To begin this war the United States has about 18,000 variable regulars, and can call on about 100,000 state militiamen. They would begin the herculean task of recruiting 100,000 or more volunteers, clothing and equipping them, buying transport ships—the government has two at the present time—horses, supplies, the enormous first cost of which would have to come out of the taxes at one fell swoop. European countries have this all provided, the accumulation of years, but in this country it would all have to be provided from the very bottom.

This is what intervention means. War, forced enlistments, heavy taxes retarded industrial and commercial developments, and general demoralization. Once in Mexico this country could not let go its control and thus we would take on ourselves an indefinite amount of care and trouble. Americans in Mexico had better sidestep and let the Mexicans fight it out.

THE CURB MARKET.

Lest we forget, all interested should not lose sight of the curb market. The time will soon be at hand when this most useful institution will need to be inaugurated for the coming season and it will take all the possible aid and encouragement to continue it along the same successful lines as last year, and to establish it on a permanent basis.

The curb market is still more or less of an experiment. Last season special effort was made by the Businesse Men's Association, the Community Club, the citizens generallly and later the Marketing Club, to promote and encourage the curb market. Farmers and gardeners were aproached and urged to bring their products to the curb market on the specified days, and citizens were appealed to for support. The curb market got a good start, but it is still not on a permanent basis, and its permanency will depend upon the regular patronage given by the citizens.

For this reason, preparations should begin now for the establishment of the curb market at the earliest possible date. Farmers and gardeners can make preparations now for increased productions and citizens should keep in mind the necessity of encouraging the effort which will in time have a material bearing in cutting down the cost of living. By dealing direct with the producer, the cost of the middleman's commission is eliminated and in time the curb market will be as permanent an institution as any that now exists.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"If a local option bill is passed by the present legislature and is signed by the governor, it will promptly be declared unconstitutional by the supreme court," said an old timer of the valley who has kept close tab on state affairs during the past fifty years. "I am confident of this, for the reason that it was the intention of the framers of the present constitution to eliminate forever local option on the liquor question. This is specifically stated in Section 7 of Article III of the constitution under the head of "Legislation," which says:

"'The general assembly shall not pass any local or special laws regulating the affairs of counties, cities, townships, wards, boroughs, or school districts.'

"This was designed specially to prohibit local option, as I well remember the howl that went up from the temperance people at the time. I lived through the discussion and adoption of that constitution and remember the effort in the community I lived in to defeat the constitution because it eliminated local option.

"It was not until the defeat of the proposition to submit a prohibitory amendment in 1889, I think it was that the local option idea began to grow. Previous to thattime it was not thought possible."

Many Teachers Attend Meeting.

Seventy teachers, several directors and a large number of public school patrons attended the teachers' meeting at Midway Friday night. Superintendent L. R. Crumrine was present and reported that this was one of the most profitable gatherings of the kind held thus far. This was the third of the district meetings designed by Superintendent Crumrine, the idea being to gather the teachers, directors and patrons of the public schools into such meetings for discussion and elucidation of the problems to be solved, courses of study and related subjects.

Loses Shoemaker and Barber.

By the removal from Independence of the family of T. A. Baker, the town loses two industries at one fell swoop. This is a shoemaking establishment and a barber shop. Mr. Baker was the only shoemaker and cobbler at Independence, while his son conducted the only barber shop. The absence of the two establishments is severely felt by the residents of Independence.

Fair Opens Labor Day.

At a meeting of the directors of the Washington Fair association Saturday evening it was definitely decided that the 1913 fair would be opened on Monday, September 1, Lab Day. The fair will be continued through Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of that week.

Farmers Have Time to Churn.

Dairy work, practically all butter-making, is occupying much of the attention and time of many of the farm people in the vicinity of Independence. One farmer delivers in town 7 miles away, regularly as much as 125 pounds of butter weekly to regular customers.

W. F. Hennings' Druggist.

We have been in business in this town for some time, and we are looking to build up trade by always advising our patrons right.

So when we tell you that we have found the eczema remedy and that we stand back of it with the manufacturer's iron clad guarantee, backed by ourselves you can depend upon it that we give our advice not in order to sell a few bottles of medicine to sufferers, but because we know how it will help our business if we help our patrons.

We keep in stock and sell all the well known skin remedies. But we will say this to you suffering from any kind of skin trouble, eczema, psoriasis, rash or tetter, we want you to try a full size bottle of D. D. D. Prescription. And, if it does not do the work, this bottle will cost you nothing. You alone to judge.

Again and again we have seen how a few drops of this simple wash applied to the skin, takes away the itch, instantly. And the cures all seem to be permanent.

D. D. D. Prescription made by the D. D. D. Laboratories of Chicago, is composed of thymol, glycerine, oil of wintergreen and other healing, soothing, cooling ingredients. And if you are just crazy with itch, you will feel soothed and cooled, the itch absolutely washed away the moment you applied this D. D. D.

We have made fast friends of more than one family by recommending this remedy to a skin sufferer here and there and we want you to try it now on our positive no-pay guarantee.

The Rockwell local option bill has passed first reading and will be called up right away for second reading. Then it will be delayed a week before being called up for third reading, when the fight will be percipitated. Before that time it is expected that Rev. Billy Sunday who is to be Gov. Tener's guest, will be in Harrisburg and make an address before the house, which it is expected will materially aid the measure.

Just now there is talk that a local option bill will be unconstitutional without a special amendment. It is certain that the farmers of the present constitutionn intended to prohibit local option and no thought of such a proposition was ever entertained until after the late proposal to submit a prohibition amendment was submitted and lost in the late eighteis.

A new flood of bills is being introduded one of the most important of which is to purge the hospital pay rolls. It is charged that certain big hospitals have high salaried employes whose mission it is exclusively to lobby at the legislation sessions for big appropriations.

Recovered From Severe Lung Trouble

While we all know that plenty of fresh air and good food are necessary to persons suffering from lung trouble, something more is needed to bring about full health. Eckman's Alterative is a medicine for throat and lung troubles, and so many reports have been received showing that it brought about good results in a number of cases which were declared hopeless, that all sufferers who are not benefiting otherwise, should, at least investigate what it has done for others. It may be the means of restoring you to health. Investigate this case:—

Madison Lake, Minn.

"Gentlemen; In December, 1908, and March, 1909, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs, which confined me several weeks each time to my bed. These left me very weak and I coughed at nights and could not sleep. My appetite also failed me. My doctor advised me to go West. So, in September, 1909, I planned to go, but I had four more hemorrhages, which put me in bed for three weeks.

"In November I started for Denver, Col. After my arrival, I met Michael Brody, who, upon learning of my condition, urged me to take Eckman's Alterative. In about two months, I began to feel better, I kept on taking the medicine and improved fast. In March, 1910, I returned home. I think I am entirely well have a good appetite and sleep well. When I left Denver my weight was 130 pounds. I now weigh 165, my normal weight. I thank God and your Alterative for my health. If I can help any other person suffering from Tuberculosis, I will gladly do so."

(Sworn affidavit) PAUL L. FASNACHT.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever; Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

VINOL HELPS OLD PEOPLE

Here Is Proof That It Creates Strength.

So many cases like this are constantly coming to our attention that we publish it for the benefit of others: Mrs. James McCormick of Cohoes, N. Y., says: "My mother is an elderly lady and after having pneumonia she did not seem to recover her strength. She was so weak it was about as much as she could do to get from her room into the living room. Her strength seemed to be all gone. I commenced to give her Vinol and in less than a week she was like a new woman. She had regained her strength so she could get around anywhere."

It is the medicinal curative elements of the cod livers without oil aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron which are contained in Vinol that makes it so efficient in such cases.

If you have an aged father, mother or anyone in your family who needs a strength-creating tonic, try Vinol on our offer to give back your money if it fails to benefit. Piper Brothers, Druggists.

New Kind of Club Measure Introduced in the House

HOTEL MEN IN FIGHT

Would Have Counties Stand Certain Losses--Local Option Bill Gets Vote

Harrisburg, Feb. 18—From being on the defensive, the liquor people have taken the aggressive at Harrisburg and some bills have been introduced which are not only startling in the radical provisions they advocate, but which are probably designed to engage the forces of the local optionists in a defensive fight. A new club measure has been introduced which will no doubt neutralize the proposed club licence bill which is arousing such a bitter controversy. Altogether, seven new liquor laws have been introduced, since the legislature met Monday evening.

One of the radical liquor measures is a bill requiring counties to reimburse liquor dealers for their losses in case their privileges are swept away by a local option or prohibition wave. This would be by the levy of a special tax on every subject of taxation and the loss would be determined by a board of appraisers. The county would also be responsible for losses by the refusal to renew licenses. Another of the radical bills is to authorize the courts to grant license to mining and manufacturing corporations the proceeds of which are to be used for the "material, mental and moral uplift" of the employes.

The club bill, which may possibly supplant the club licensing measure is modeled after theEnglish law on the subject, which was passed in 1902 and is said to have worked remarkably well. It does not require a license from the court, but all clubs are required to register with the clerk of the courts and to pay a fee of $3.

This registration includes the notification of the club's location, its name and object, its list of members and officers, its by-laws, its rules governing the admission of guests and non-members and the sale of liquor to them. Unregistered clubs are prohibited from selling liquor even to members, and the court is given authority to strike any club from registry for any of the following reasons: The passing of club out of existence, or the reduction of its members below 20; the use of the club or clubhouse for unlawful purposes or in bad faith as regards the liquor laws; when the club or its quarters become a nuisance to the neighborhood; when it appears that non-members are admitted for the sole purpose of obtaining intoxicating liquor; when members are admitted within 48 hours of their nomination to membership. Penalities are imposed upon the officers of the club for failure to register the club at the proper time and place and for selling liquor before registration of the club with the court.

Other measures introduced were one making it a misdemeanor for a

Steve Huggetts After Fight Presents Appearance Like Mexico City After War

Suffering with a broken nose and other injuries to his face the result of the worst kind of a beating Steve Huggets a Slavok is being cared for by a nurse at a home on McKean avenue. Huggets it is stated hada n altercation with John Pelky, and what Pelky did to him is what the Bulgars have been doing to Turkey. When Pelky got through with him his face looked like a picture of Mexico City during the worst of its strife. Both eyes were closed in addition to the fractured nose, he had a gash under one eye and his cheeks were puffed out until they somewhat resembled painted cabbages. A physician patched him up and the police went after Pelky, whim they secured after a short chase.

MEASLES EPIDEMIC AT WORST

Said to be at Least One Hundred Persons Ill From Disease

HEALTH OFFICER BUSY

There are probably 100 cases of measles now in Charleroi and the epidemic is the worst the town ever experienced. The health autholities are just beginning to have the disease controlled and more quarantine cards are being removed now than put up, which is considered an especially good sign. Health Officer Darby has been kept unusually busy quarantining new cases of measles, and fumigating homes where the disease has been.

The origin of the disease is not known. Measles usually rage through the winter season or during the spring, but never it is stated was there an epidemic similar to this in Charleroi. First traces of it were found among the children of the Second street and Crest avenue schools. In some places from four to five children in a home would be afflicted at once.

W. C. T. U. HONORS MEMORY OF FOUNDER

Memorial Services Held by Charleroi Society at First Christian Church--Review of Work of Temperance

Fitting tribute was paid to the memory of Francis Willard founder of the Women's Christian Temeprance Union, by the Charleroi W. C. T. U. Monday night at the First Christian church. By the meeting, which was attended by a good sized audience, an impetus was given to the work of the society in Charleroi. A most interesting program was carired out

Mrs. Emma Dawson, president of the society was in charge of the program. She conducted devotional services. Mrs. J. K. Mitchell was the first speaker, telling of the life, the ideals and the work of Frances Willard. Mrs. E. G. Stanley gave a descriptive analysis of the work of the W. C. T. U. at large.

The Loyal Temperance union, composed of young folks of a tender age under direction of Miss Lulu Buffie contributed a very interesting exercise as their share in the work for temperance.

The musical program was excellent. A male quartet composed of Rev. John R. Burson, John Bowman, W. C. Clark and Dr. J. W. Manon rendered some very entertaining selections. Mrs. I. T. Daniel, soprano soloist was in excellent voice and pleased accordingly. Most interesting temperance readings were given by Miss Nell Ryland and Miss Grace Chester. Rev. E. G. Stanley said the benediction.

EAST WASHINGTON HIGH COMBATANTS OF FRIDAY NIGHT

The fast East Washington High School basketball team, which last year proved to be one of the liveliest contenders for the Washington county's scholastic championship in basketball, and one of the hardest teams Charleroi High stacked up against, will be here on Friday night of this week to meet Charleroi High. To say a good game is expected is superfluous. The local boys are preparing to put their best lineup forth in their endeavor to claim the Washington county championship and are going to work hard for their laurels.

SURPRISE FOR MR. AND MRS. ELLWOOD

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ellwood were agreeably surprised Monday evening when a number of their friends gathered at their home on Washington avenue, the event being in honor of their tenth anniversary of their marriage. The evening was pleasantly spent. A lunch was served. Mr. and Mrs. Ellwood received many useful presents.

CHARLEROI BOWLERS BEAT FAYETTE CITY CHURCH LEAGUE MEN

St. Jerome's Catholic church bowling team of the Catholic Bowling league defeated the St. Eusebius church club of Fayette City Monday night in two out of three games. High score was made by J. A. Glasser of St. Jeromes with 140. After the game had seemingly been lost by St. Jerome's they came out ahead by a startling finish. St. Eusebius was well represented by rooters, who under the leadership of a Mr. Kelley, made things hum. The next game will be between St. Joseph's of Roscoe and the O'Connell club of Charleroi Friday. The score:

THIRTEEN CHARTERS ASKED FOR

Incorporation Papers Sought in Several Districts

MAKES SECOND NOTICE

Added significance is being given to the move of a corporation of three men, who are unknown her, Herman W. Kalberer, Arthur B. Dampman, and William E. Miller, to secure charters for light companies in Washington county. A little more than a week ago first notice was given of charters to be applied for in 12 districts, practically all of which fronted on the Monongahela. Today in other columns of the Mail are published 13 additional charter notices for charters to be applied for by the same body of men in townships and boroughs in various parts of Washington county. Wilson and Evans of Pittsburg are the attorneys.

The names of the thirteen companies of which first announcement of charters is made today and their point of operation are: Robinson township, Mt. Pleasant Light Co., Mt. Pleasant township; Smith Light Co., Smith township; Nottingham Light Co., Nottingham township; Somerset Light Co., Somerset township; Opalescent Light Co., West Bethlehem township; Amwell Light Co., Amwell township; Stockdale Light Co., Stockdale borough; Roscoe Light Co., Roscoe borough; Long Branch Light Co., Long Branch borough; Elco Light Co., Elco borough; Coal Centre Light Co., Coal Centre borough; California Light Co., California borough.

When these charters are asked for 25 of the townships and boroughs in the county will be represented. Whether the company plans to enter

SAMUEL DOWNER HURT

County Treasurer Sustains Cut on Cheek--Thirty Passengers Shaken up

About 30 passengers of Pittsburg-Charleroi car No. 8602 were more or less shaken up and some of them seriously injured when the car onward bound from Pittsburg crashed into the rear of a freight car at Mingo Switch Monday evening about 6 o'clock. Among the injured was County Treasurer Samuel Downer, who sustained a painful cut on his cheek that necessitated the attention of a physician. The accident is declared by the Pittsburg Railway company to be due to the falure of the brakes on the car to work.

The car was going at a fair speed when the crash came. When Motorman Caughey of the passenger car saw the collision was inevitable he jumped and rolled down an imbankment into a creek. All of the passengers were hurled from their seats. The front of the passenger car was crushed in while the freight car was badly damaged, considerable merchandise being ruined.

Mr. Downer was thrown from his seat into another seat sustaining a cut on the lower part of the face which required several stitches, a bad sprain of the neck and bruises and hurts about the head. E. B. Enoch of Washington was cut about the head and face and a physician at Allenport closed one of his wounds with three stitches. Mrs. O'Neil of Linn alley, Monongahela, was injured about the face. Justice J. D. Hornbake of California had several teeth knocked out and his lips were cut. Other passengers were considerably shaken up but escaped serious hurts. Mrs. V. P. Stewart of Charleroi was on the car. She was thrown from her seat against the seat in front, sustaining bruises about her head and shoulders.

Another car was secured and the passengers taken on to Monongahela where they were asked to go to the Memorial hospital for treatment. Most of them declined and some of those hurt had their wounds dressed by physicians in Monongahela while others came on to Charleroi.

WHAT INTERVENTION MEANS

President Taft is to be commended for his determination not to be influenced by the jingoism that prevails in certain quarters and to abstain from intervention in Mexico unless absolutely necessary. Up to the present time there has been no necessity for intervention in Mexico by this government on account of the insurrection and disorder that now prevail in that country. While it is to be deplored that American interests in Mexico and investments there are not on a more stable basis, it must be remembered that such investments took the chance of instability of government when they made the venture.

It may be of interest to those people who are hot for intervention to know that if this course were adopted by this government it would require an army of 300,000 men and a expenditure of a million dollars a day. Military experts who have carefully looked over the situation and are preparing plans and specifications for the government are responsible for this statement. In addition to that, to preserve peace in Mexico means patrolling 700,000 square miles of territory, keeping 15,000,000 people in order, pursuing a guerilla warfare through inaccessible mountains for a period of from three to five years, ending up by taking over Mexico entirely, and adding to our trouble and perplexities of government.

To begin this war the United States has about 18,000 vailable regulars, and can call on about 100,000 state militiamen. Then would begin the herculean task of recruiting 400,000 or more volunteers, clothing and equipping them, buying transport ships—the government has twa at the present time—horses, supplies, the enormous first cost of which would have to come out of the taxes at one fell swoop. European countries have this all provided, the accumulation of years, but in this country it would all have to be provided from the very bottom.

This is what intervention means. War, forced enlistments, heavy taxes, retarded industrial and commercial developments, and general demoralization. Once in Mexico this country could not let go its control and thus we would take on ourselves an indefinite amount of care and trouble. Americans in Mexico had better sidestep and let the Mexicans fight it out.

THE CURB MARKET.

Lest we forget, all interested should not lose sight of the curb market. The time will soon be at hand when this most useful institution will need to be inaugurated for the coming season and it will take all the possible aid and encouragement to continue it along the same successful lines as last year, and to establish it on a permanent basis.

The curb market is still more or less of an experiment. Last season special effort was made by the Businesse Men's Association, the Community Club, the citizens generallly and later the Marketing Club, to promote and encourage the curb market. Farmers and gardeners were aproached and urged to bring their products to the curb market on the specified days, and citizens were appealed to for suppoit. The curb market got a good start, but it is still not on a permanent basis, and its permanency will depend upon the regular patronage given by the citizens.

For this reason, preparations should begin now for the establishment of the curb market at the earliest possible date. Farmers and gardeners can make preparations now for increased productions and citizens should keep in mind the necessity of encouraging the effort which will in time have a material bearing in cutting down the cost of living. By dealing direct with the producer, the cost of the middleman's commission is eliminated and in time the curb market will be as permanent an institution as any that now exists.

PICKED UP IN PASSING

"If a local option bill is passed by the present legislature and is signed by the governor, it will promptly be declared unconstitutional by the supreme court," said an old timer of the valley who has kept close tab on state affairs during the past fifty years. "I am confident of this, for the reason that it was the intention of the framers of the present constitution to eliminate forever local option on the liquor question. This is specifically stated in Section 7 of Article III of the constitution under the head of "Legislation," which says:

"'The general assembly shall not pass any local or special laws regulating the affairs of counties, cities, townships, wards, boroughs, or school districts.'

"This was designed specially to prohibit local option, as I well remember the howl that went up from the temperance people at the time I lived through the discussion and adoption of that constitution and remember the effort in the community I lived in to defeat the constitution because it eliminated local option.

"It was not until the defeat of the proposition to submit a prohibitory amendment in 1889, I think it was that the local option idea began to grow. Previous to that time it was not thought possible."

Many Teachers Attend Meeting.

Seventy teachers, several directors and a large number of public school patrons attended the teachers' meeting at Midway Friday night. Superintendent L. R. Crumrine was present and reported that this was one of the most profitable gatherings of the kind held thus far. This was the third of the district meetings designed by Superintendent Crumrine, the idea being to gather the teachers, directors and patrons of the public schools into such meetings for discussion and elucidation of the problems to be solved, courses of study and related subjects.

Loses Shoemaker and Barber.

By the removal from Independence of the family of T. A. Baker, the town loses two industries at one fell swoop. This is a shoemaking establishment and a barber shop. Mr. Baker was the only shoemaker and cobbler at Independence, while his son conducted the only barber shop. The absence of the two establishments is severely felt by the residents of Independence.

The Rockwell local option bill has passed first reading and will be called up right away for second reading. Then it will be delayed a week before being called up for third reading, when the fight will be percipitated. Before that time it is expected that Rev. Billy Sunday who is to be Gov. Tener's guest, will be in Harrisburg and make an address before the house, which it is expected will materially aid the measure.

Just now there is talk that a local option bill will be unconstitutional without a special amendment. It is certain that the farmers of the present constitutionn intended to prohibit local option and no thought of such a proposition was ever entertained until after the late proposal to submit a prohibition amendment was submitted and lost in the late eighteis.

A new flood of bills is being introduced one of the most important of which is to purge the hospital pay rolls. It is charged that certain big hospitals have high salaried employes whose mission it is exclusively to lobby at the legislation sessions for big appropriations.

Recovered From Severe Lung Trouble

While we all know that plenty of fresh air and good food are necessary to persons suffering from lung trouble, something more is needed to bring about full health. Eckman's Alterative is a medicine for throat and lung troubles, and so many reports have been received showing that it brought about good results in a number of cases which were declared hopeless, that all sufferers who are not benefiting otherwise, should, at least investigate what it has done for others. It may be the means of restoring you to health. Investigate this case:—

Madison Lake, Minn.

"Gentlemen: In December, 1908, and March, 1909, I was taken with hemorrhages of the lungs, which confined me several weeks each time to my bed. These left me very weak and I coughed at nights and could not sleep. My appetite also failed me. My doctor advised me to go West. So, in September, 1909, I planned to go, but I had four more hemorrhages, which put me in bed for three weeks.

"In November I started for Denver, Col. After my arrival, I met Michael Brody, who, upon learning of my condition, urged me to take Eckman's Alterative. In about two months, I began to feel better. I kept on taking the medicine and improved fast. In March, 1910, I returned home; I think I am entirely well, have a good appetite and sleep well. When I left Denver my weight was 130 pounds. I now weigh 165, my normal weight. I thank God and your Alterative for my health. If I can help any other person do so."

(Sworn affidavit) PAUL L. FASNACHT.

Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever; Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.

VINOL HELPS OLD PEOPLE

Here Is Proof That It Creates Strength.

So many cases like this are constantly coming to our attention that we publish it for the benefit of others: Mrs. James McCormick of Cohoes, N. Y., says: "My mother is an elderly lady and after having pneumonia she did not seem to recover her strength. She was so weak it was about as much as she could do to get from her room into the living room. Her strength seemed to be all gone. I commenced to give her Vinol and in less than a week she was like a new woman. She had regained her strength so she could get around anywhere."

It is the medicinal curative elements of the cod livers without oil aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron which are contained in Vinol that makes it so efficient in such cases.

If you have an aged father, mother or anyone in your family who needs a strength-creating tonic, try Vinol on our offer to give back your money if it fails to benefit. Piper Brothers, Druggists.
